
CLEVELAND INDIANS 1992 MEDIA GUIDE $6

ABOUT THE COVER

The cover of the 1992 Indians Media Guide commemorates 60 years of baseball at Cleveland Stadium. The Tribe's first game at the Stadium was on July 31, 1932 vs. Philadelphia. The Indians lost 1-0 with Mel Harder suffering the defeat to Lefty Grove.

The Indians played their first full season at Cleveland Stadium in 1933, after which they returned to League Park, playing occasionally at the Stadium. They returned to Cleveland Stadium on a permanent basis in 1947 and have remained there ever since.

The first home run hit at the Stadium was hit by the Indians Johnny Burnett against Washington on August 7, 1932. It has been determined that the longest ball hit at the Stadium was by Indians first baseman Luke Easter on June 23, 1950. The ball landed in the upper deck, section 4 in right field - a total of 477 feet from home plate. No ball has ever been hit into the centerfield bleachers.

Cleveland Stadium has been the site of 13 no-hitters, 10 by the Indians, three against the Tribe. There have been two perfect games thrown at the Stadium, both by Tribe hurlers. The first was by Addie Joss against Chicago on October 2, 1908. The last one was tossed by Len Barker over the Toronto Blue Jays on May 15, 1981.

Cleveland Stadium witnessed the Indians last World Championship in 1948 and their last American League crown in 1954. On October 10, 1948, 86,288 fans watched Game 5 of the World Series. It marks the largest crowd in the history of the Stadium.

Depicted on the cover are former Cleveland stars BOB FELLER, ROCKY COLAVITO, LOU BOUDREAU and JIM HEGAN as well as current Indians CHARLES NAGY, ALBERT BELLE, CARLOS BAERGA and SANDY ALOMAR.

The Indians are scheduled to move into the new Gateway ballpark in 1994.

The 1992 Cleveland Indians Media Guide was produced by Susie Gharrity, John Maroon and Bob DiBiasio. Graphic Design by Kim Carpinello. Assisting in the production of the guide was John Krepop, Travis Tucker and Dan Kilday. Historical information was compiled by Morris Eckhouse and various members of SABR. Richard E. Jacobs

Owners

Richard E. Jacobs
David H. Jacobs

David H. Jacobs

Richard and David Jacobs purchased the Cleveland Indians in December, 1986. Under their direction, the team has embarked on a major revitalization process that includes increasing the number of farm clubs and doubling the number of scouts and instructors in the organization as well as a proposed new ballpark to open in 1994 in Cleveland's Gateway development complex.

Richard Jacobs, principal owner, is Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Cleveland Indians Baseball Company Limited Partnership. David Jacobs is Vice-Chairman of the ballclub and owner.

The Jacobs brothers were born and raised in Akron, Ohio, and both graduated from Buchtel High School.

Richard Jacobs served in the Army during World War II and was discharged in 1946 as a First Lieutenant. Shortly after graduating from Indiana University in 1949 with a degree in business administration, he launched a career in commercial real estate.

David Jacobs is also a graduate of Indiana University, where he obtained a degree in business administration in 1947. During World War II, he served in the Naval Lighter Than Air, from which he was discharged in 1945 as a Lieutenant Senior Grade.

Over the years, the Jacobs brothers compiled a portfolio of major developments and properties throughout the country. Their company — The Richard & David Jacobs Group — currently owns and manages 43 regional, enclosed malls in 15 states. Other holdings include six hotels, six office buildings and Wendy's restaurants in Manhattan and Long Island, New York and New Jersey.

In downtown Cleveland, the Group owns and manages The Galleria and Tower at Erieview, as well as Society Center, which includes the 400-room Marriott hotel and the 57-story office tower that is the tallest building between New York and Chicago. In addition, the Jacobs brothers own several other downtown office buildings and parking facilities.

Rick Bay

President and Chief Operating Officer

Rick Bay enters his first season as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Cleveland Indians. Was originally named Executive Vice-President on September 18, 1991 and remained in that position until January 1, 1992 when he replaced Hank Peters, who retired at the conclusion of 1991, as the team President and C.O.O.

The 48 year-old Bay comes to the Indians from the University of Minnesota where he served as the school's Athletic Director since December of 1988. He took over the helm at Minnesota after spending five months as the Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees.

The former All-American wrestler at the University of Michigan is best known for his work as an administrator in intercollegiate athletics. He served as Athletic Director at the Ohio State University from 1984-87. He chose to leave the University rather than fire football coach Earl Bruce

The Waukegan, Illinois native competed in baseball and captured All-Suburban Chicago area honors, was an All-State quarterback in football and a three-time state wrestling champion in high school and was named the Illinois Athlete of the Year as a senior. He attended the University of Michigan on a wrestling scholarship. As a senior, Rick was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Year and captured two Big Ten titles during his four-year wrestling career.

After graduating from Michigan, Bay became assistant wrestling coach at the school and four years later, became the team's head coach. Led the Wolverines to the 1973 Big Ten Championship and was honored as College Coach of the Year. Rick's last two teams were undefeated and finished 3rd and 2nd in the NCAA tournament.

In 1981 he was named Athletic Director at the University of Oregon. The school was in debt and about to be placed on NCAA probation when Rick arrived and within one year he balanced the budget and increased revenue through the reorganization of the fund-raising program. When he left Oregon to take over at Ohio State, the school was on sound financial ground and the NCAA sanctions had been lifted.

At Ohio State he instituted several innovative marketing and promotional concepts. He also launched a $45 million facilities campaign and developed a radio policy that nearly doubled Ohio State's radio revenue. Spearheaded the financing and construction of the Woody Hayes Athletics Complex on the Ohio State campus.

An avid golfer and physical fitness buff, Bay ran in the 1979 Boston Marathon and placed in the top 15% with a time of 2 hours, 47 minutes. A collector of contemporary art and a one-time radio theatre critic, Rick has seen over 600 plays, including 27 of the 36 plays written by Shakespeare. Also has a keen interest in opera, ballet and classical music.

Rick and his wife Denice have a track record that stresses community involvement and they are as at home in theatre groups as they are at a ballgame.

Won-Lost Breakdown 206

THE 1991 TRIBE

While the 1991 season was a disappointing one as far as wins and losses were concerned, the team also enjoyed the acquisition and maturation of many key players including Albert Belle, Mark Whiten, Jim Thome, Carlos Baerga, Reggie Jefferson, Charles Nagy, Kenny Lofton,Scott Scudder, Jack Armstrong, Dennis Cook and Carlos Baerga.

Throughout the course of the season the Indians used 53 different players, a club record, and underwent a managerial change. The Indians closed out the campaign with the youngest team in the majors with an average age of 26.1 years.

The Indians started the season in the middle of the pack, ending April in 5th place with a 7-10 record, 3.5 games out of first place.

In May and June, the team was a combined 17-38 and they suffered devastating injuries to Sandy Alomar, Chris James, Brook Jacoby and Felix Fermin. On June 14 the Indians acquired Reggie Jefferson from the Reds in exchange for minor leaguer Tim Costo. The highly touted Jefferson showed signs of becoming a fixture for the Indians at first base for years to come.

Through the season's first half one of the Tribe's glaring weaknesses was in the outfield. On June 27 the Indians dealt starter Tom Candiotti to Toronto for OFs Mark Whiten and Glenallen Hill and LHP Denis Boucher. The move added a pair of young, talented outfielders that, when paired with Albert Belle, comprised an explosive outfield threat.

On July 6 the Indians replaced Manager John McNamara with First Base Coach Mike Hargrove. The former Tribe first baseman had climbed through the ranks of the Indians system as a coach and manager and was poised to take the reins of the young Tribe.

At the All-Star break the Indians were 26-53 and 21 games off the pace. The All-Star Game was played at the Skydome in Toronto on July 9 and the Indians were represented by catcher Sandy Alomar who started his second straight Mid-Summer Classic despite an injury-plagued first half.

The Indians offense came alive under Hargrove. When Mike took over the team the Indians were batting .248 and averaged 3.3 runs per games. From July 6 until the end of the year the team batted .260 and scored 3.8 runs per game.

Following the season the Indians concentrated on improving their pitching staff and adding depth to the outfield. On November 15 the Indians traded lefty Greg Swindell to Cincinnati in exchange for right-handers Scott Scudder and former All-Star Jack Armstrong as well as RHP Joe Turek. The Indians also claimed lefty Derek Lilliquist off waivers from the Padres.

At the annual Baseball Winter Meetings the Indians continued to deal. On December 10 the Indians acquired CF Kenny Lofton, the top prospect in the Pacific Coast League and INF Dave Rohde from the Houston Astros in exchange for C Ed Taubensee and RHP Willie Blair.

On December 11 the Tribe added two more hurlers to their staff, acquiring lefty Dennis Cook and righty Mike Christopher from the Dodgers for Rudy Seanez. The Indians also added Mike Thomas, a right-handed hurler, in the Rule 5 Draft.

The look of the Indians has changed dramatically since the start of the 1991 season. The Indians have improved in many areas during and following the '91 campaign.

The 1992 Indians should prove to be an exciting, young team that improves as they play together.

HISTORY OF THE CLEVELAND INDIANS

Professional baseball in Cleveland is one of the city's oldest traditions, approaching it's 125th anniversary in 1994.

When fans think of professional baseball in Cleveland most think of the current Cleveland Indians as being one of four charter members of the American League (along with Boston, Chicago and Detroit).

However, the city of Cleveland has played host to every professional major league in the history of the game since the Cleveland Forest City's began this tradition on June 2, 1869 vs. the Cincinnati Red Stockings.

Cleveland fielded a National Association team in 1871 and 1872; a National League team from 1879 to 1884 and an American Association club in 1888 and 1889. In addition, Cleveland played host to teams in the Player's League, Federal League and Negro League.

In 1895 the Cleveland Spiders of the N.L. were winners of the Temple Cup Championship series against Baltimore (the Spiders lost the championship series to Baltimore the following season). The Cleveland Buckeyes of the Negro League were crowned champions in 1945. The 1920 & 1948 Indians own World Series titles.

Many great ballplayers have graced the diamonds in Cleveland, and it is through the fortunes of those men in uniform that we learn of the history of the Cleveland Indians.

The first era of Cleveland's American League team is defined by the presence of NAPOLEON LAJOIE. Charles Somers, first owner of the new franchise, and a major financial backer for the entire junior circuit, acquired the Frenchman from Connie Mack's Philadelphia club. Lajoie had jumped from the N.L. to Mack's club, only to be legally restrained from playing in Philadelphia. Mack repaid Somers' financial support by trading Lajoie to Cleveland. Initially known as the Blues (1901) and Broncos (1902), Cleveland's nickname became Naps, in honor of Lajoie, in 1903. During Lajoie's years with Cleveland, the club peaked in 1908 in a down-to-the-wire pennant race with Chicago and Detroit. The key players included third baseman BILL BRADLEY, first baseman GEORGE STOVALL, shortstop TERRY TURNER, outfielder ELMER FLICK, and 24-game winner ADDIE JOSS. Despite perhaps the greatest game ever pitched, Joss' 1-0 perfect game victory against Chicago's Ed Walsh on October 2, the Naps finished second.

Relinquishing managerial chores in 1909, Lajoie reversed a declining batting average and engaged Ty Cobb in a memorable batting race in 1910. Baseball historians still argue whether Cobb or Lajoie deserves designation as 1910 A.L. batting champ. Key arrivals and depatures occured in 1910-1911. JOE JACKSON arrived in 1910 courtesy of Mack and soon supplanted Lajoie as the greatest batsman in club history. Tragedy struck in 1911 when Joss was stricken with spinal meningitis and died on April 11 at age 31. CY YOUNG, who rose to fame with the N.L. Spiders from 1890 to 1898, returned to Cleveland in 1909 and bid farewell again in 1911. By 1913, Jackson, Lajoie, shortstop RAY CHAPMAN, catcher STEVE O'NEILL and pitchers CY FALKENBERG and VEAN GREGG were the nucleus of a rising franchise, but the upstart Federal League raided the A.L. and N.L. and the team. The 1914 team lost a club record 102 games and drew just 185,997 paying customers. Lajoie was released. Jackson was traded for three players and much needed cash.

A new name, new owner and new star ushered in the next era of Cleveland baseball. Lajoie's depature mandated a new team nickname. In fan balloting through a local newspaper, Indians was chosen to honor former Spider LOUIS SOCKALEXIS, the first well known Native American professional baseball player. Another baseball immortal, TRIS SPEAKER arrived in Cleveland in 1916, traded from the Red Sox after a contract dispute. Jim Dunn helped finance the Speaker deal and soon became the club owner. Speaker led the newly named Indians to greater glory. After strong contention in 1918 and 1919, the Indians finally brought an A.L. pennant to Cleveland in 1920, despite the tragic death of the popular Ray Chapman following his beaning by Carl Mays on August 16 at the Polo Grounds in New York. The '20 Indians led the A.L. in runs scored, doubles, triples, RBIs, walks and batting (.303). Speaker, outfielder ELMER SMITH and third baseman LARRY GARDNER each drove in over 100 runs. JIM BAGBY led the A.L. in wins (a club record 31), winning percentage, games, starts, CGs and IP. STAN COVELESKI became the first of many Tribe pitchers to lead the A.L. in strikeouts. Coveleski won 24 games, plus three more in the World Series, and former Yankees ace RAY CALDWELL added 20 victories. Rookie JOE SEWELL ultimately replaced Chapman and began a Hall of Fame career. Late season call-up DUSTER MAILS was a perfect 7-0 and helped hold off the Yankees and White Sox. Cleveland's five games to two World Series win against Brooklyn was puncuated by Elmer Smith's grand slam, the first grand slam in W.S. history, Jim Bagby's home run, and second baseman BILL WAMBSGANSS' famous unassisted triple play, all in the fifth game, October 10, 1920 at League Park. The Tribe was a solid contender in 1921 and 1926 led by Speaker, Sewell and pitcher GEORGE UHLE.

The two decades immediately following Speaker's departure brought great stars and memorable moments. This period saw the arrival of EARL AVERILL, MEL HARDER, BOB FELLER and LOU BOUDREAU (the only four Indians to have their numbers retired), a new stadium and new ownership. A syndicate led by John Sherwin and Alva Bradley purchased the club from Jim Dunn's estate on November 17, 1927. After playing all home games in League Park, located at the corner of East 66th street and Lexington avenue, the Indians played their first home game at mammoth Cleveland Municipal Stadium on July 31, 1932 as Philadelphia's Lefty Grove edged Harder 1-0 before more than 80,000 fans. The Indians played home games exclusively at the lakefront stadium for the remainder of 1932 and all of 1933. High costs and the size of the stadium drove the club back to League Park for all but Sunday and holiday games in 1934. Cleveland's first home night games, all at the stadium began on June 27, 1939 with Feller's one-hitter against the Tigers. Highlights of the Bradley ownership period included WES FERRELL's four straight 20-win seasons, LEW FONSECA's 1929 batting title, hitting heroics of HAL TROSKY and Cleveland sandlot star turned pro JOE VOSMIK, tempermental JOHNNY ALLEN's 15-game winning streak in 1937 and the infamous shirtsleeve incident of June 7, 1938. Allen was ordered from the pitching mound by umpire Bill McGowan for wearing a tattered uniform sleeve on his pitching arm. Allen was fined $250, but Bradley pacified the pitcher by purchasing the uniform for display at Higbee's department store. From there, the uniform went to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. OSSIE VITT, fresh from a 109 win season as manager of the International League Newark Bears in 1937, became Tribe skipper in 1938. By 1940, a veteran Cleveland team bolstered by rookies Boudreau and RAY MACK offered legitimate pennant hopes. Vitt's team became known as the Crybabies when a contingent of players asked Bradley to remove the tempermental skipper. Thwarted by a late season hitting slump, the Indians finished a game behind the Tigers.

From his arrival in Cleveland in 1936 to his enlistment in the U.S. Navy in 1941, BOB FELLER was the focus of Cleveland's baseball attention. Signed by superscout Cy Slapnicka, Feller became the youngest player ever in Tribe history. Among his 14 regular-season appearances in 1936 was a 15-strikeout effort against the St. Louis Browns and a then major league record-tying 17 against the A's. Bob won 107 games games during his first six seasons, led the A.L. in strikeouts eight times, had an 18-strikeout game against Detroit on October 2, 1938, and pitched an Opening Day no-hitter at Chicago in 1940. His departure for military service came just as Boudreau was becoming player-manager at the tender age of 24. Boudreau won a batting title in 1944 (he also led all major leaguers with 1,578 hits during the 1940s), but the Indians were out of the running throughout the war years. Feller returned to a hero's welcome in 1945 and returned to the forefront of A.L. pitchers in 1946 with 26 wins and a club record 348 strikeouts.

The most colorful, successful period in Indians history began on June 21, 1946 when Bill Veeck purchased the team. He moved the club back to the lakefront stadium on a full-time basis in 1947 and his innovative promotions helped spark record attendance. His solid baseball judgement built a pennant contender. Gambles such as signing LARRY DOBY, the A.L.'s first black player, in 1947 and venerable SATCHEL PAIGE in 1948 paid off handsomely. Keeping Boudreau, player-manager since 1942, rather than trading him to the St. Louis Browns, might have been the best non-trade in club history. Veeck's 1948 club stands far above all others as the most revered, best remembered team in Tribe annals. Featuring Boudreau, Feller, Doby, Paige, KEN KELTNER, JOE GORDON, GENE BEARDEN and BOB LEMON, the Indians took the A.L. pennant in a historic one-game playoff against the Red Sox at Fenway Park, then beat the Boston Braves in six games. Veeck departed in 1949, but general manager Hank Greenberg remained and hired AL LOPEZ to replace Boudreau as manager in 1951. The Lopez-managed Indians, dominated by pitchers Lemon, EARLY WYNN, and MIKE GARCIA, never finished lower than second and won a league record 111 games in 1954. Throughout his regime, Lopez' Indians were thwarted by New York teams, finishing behind the Yankees five times and losing the '54 World Series in four games to the Giants. The slugging Cleveland offense, led by Doby, AL ROSEN and LUKE EASTER, actually out-powered the Bronx Bombers in the fifties, leading the league in homers six times.

Standing in line to succeed the aging Lopez-Greenberg Indians were such young talents as 1955 Rookie of the Year HERB SCORE, ROCKY COLAVITO, ROGER MARIS, JIM PERRY and JIM GRANT. Tragedy struck again in 1957 when Score was felled by a line drive off the bat of New York's Gil McDougald. Score returned to pitch, but never to the brilliance he achieved earlier. Another ownership change preceeded the departure of Lopez and Greenberg. Hank had determined the Indians should move to another city, but new club president William R. Daley and the club board of directors chose to stay put and change general managers. Replacing Greenberg was Frank Lane, notoriously known as "Trader Lane". Lane made 60 separate deals from December 2, 1957 to December 15, 1959. In the process, the Indians returned to contention in 1959, finishing a close second to the Chicago White Sox. The 1959 Indians led the A.L. in HRs, runs scored, batting average and slugging percentage. Tribe home attendance was up 125%, trailing only the Yankees, Dodgers and Braves.

Frank Lane dealt Tribe fans a crushing blow by trading Colavito to the Tigers for Harvey Kuenn on April 17, 1960. Rocky had been co-HR champ in 1959, blasted 129 homers over four seasons, including four in a game at Baltimore on June 20, 1959, and had become the most charismatic Tribesman of his era.

Like Cleveland itself, the Indians suffered economically, underwent seven ownership changes in 25 years (as many as occured in the first 60 years of the franchise), and endured constant rumors that the club would relocate to Seattle, Atlanta, New Orleans or elsewhere.

Teams of 1962, 1965 and 1968 were perhaps a player away from pennant contention. The '68 team, led by LUIS TIANT, is the only Tribe team since 1959 to finish higher than fourth, but teams of 1962 and 1965 battled for first place beyond mid-season before fading. Colavito's return in 1965 was a high point of the sixties, but the cost included future stars Tommy John and Tommie Agee. Tiant's brilliant '68 season (21 wins, league-leading 1.60 ERA) was followed by arm trouble and departure. "Sudden" SAM McDOWELL was a four-time strikeout leader during the 1960s. His 1965 season included a league-low 2.18 ERA, league-high 325 strikeouts (most ever by a Tribe lefty) and two consecutive one-hitters.

McDowell won 20 games in 1970. Colorful KEN HARRELSON was acquired amid much fanfare in 1969, broke his leg in 1970 and retired. RAY FOSSE, seemingly destined for stardom, was injured by Pete Rose in a memorable home plate collision to end the 1970 All-Star Game. Lack of stability and finances in this period placed an emphasis on immediate benefits rather than long-range plans. Accordingly, there have been great individual accomplishments but little team glory.

GAYLORD PERRY, acquired with Frank Duffy for McDowell in 1972, brought the Cy Young Award to Cleveland with a brilliant 24-win season. He was even better during the first half of 1974, fashioning a 15-game winning streak. The '74 Indians, managed by KEN ASPROMONTE and featuring Perry, BUDDY BELL, GEORGE HENDRICK and CHARLIE SPIKES, were just a half game from first place on July 4 and in second as late as August 22 before falling to fourth. Short-term actions, like the trading of 1972 Rookie of the Year CHRIS CHAMBLISS and third baseman GRAIG NETTLES to the Yankees, came at long-term expense.

On October 3, 1974, FRANK ROBINSON replaced Aspromonte, becoming the first black manager in M.L. history, giving Cleveland another giant first in baseball's integration efforts. His first at-bat, an opening day home run in 1975, was voted the most memorable moment in club history by the fans! His 1976 Indians were the first with a winning record since 1968, but a slow start in 1977 led to Robinson's departure.

In the steal of the decade, general manager Phil Seghi obtained ANDRE THORNTON from Montreal for Jackie Brown. Thornton battled injuries and personal tragedy to become one of Cleveland's all-time leading home run hitters and most respected players.

Cleveland's third Rookie of the Year, JOE CHARBONEAU dominated 1980. Joe was the subject of a book, song and fan support unseen since Colavito. But back trouble cut Joe's promising career short.

LEN BARKER's perfect game on May 15, 1981, Thornton's 1982 comeback after missing all of 1980 and most of 1981, and JOE CARTER's 30-30 season in 1987 are just some of the memorable feats played out on the shores of Lake Erie. The 1986 team featured heavy-hitting from Carter Thornton, CORY SNYDER, BROOK JACOBY, BRETT BUTLER and JULIO FRANCO, had surprised fans with a fourth place finish and a league-leading offense.

In 1987, under the new ownership of Richard E. and David H. Jacobs, and club president Hank Peters, emphasis was placed on player development. Stable, committed ownership improved the farm system, and a new state-of-the-art ballpark that will be ready in 1994 are all positive indications that professional baseball in Cleveland is alive and well as it heads into it's third century.

LOUIS SOCKALEXIS:
THE CLEVELAND INDIAN
(1871-1913)

Louis F. Sockalexis was a Penobscot Indian from Old Towne, Maine and the first American Indian to play major league baseball.

Sockalexis, who played collegiate baseball at Holy Cross College in Worchester, MA., joined the Cleveland club in 1897. In his first season with the team he hit at a .338 clip.

His career was short-lived as Louis played for only three seasons. Over his brief three year career he compiled a .313 batting average. In his 2nd season with Cleveland Louis saw his average dip to .224. His final summer in the majors was 1899 when he appeared in only seven games and batted .273.

The team employed several nicknames throughout the years prior to the arrival of Sockalexis and after his departure. The one that was used for the longest period of time was "Naps", in honor of the team's player-manager Napolean Lajoie.

After Lajoie was released in 1914 a Cleveland newspaper held a contest to rename the team. The winning entry in the contest was "Indians". The fan that sent it in explained that it would be a testament to the game's first American Indian. The memory of Louis F. Sockalexis was not forgotten then, and today, 77 years later, he is still remembered.

HISTORY OF CLEVELAND NAMES

1869 -- FOREST CITYS (Cleveland known as the Forest City).

1889 -- SPIDERS (The 1889 Cleveland Club was comprised of many tall and skinny players so the management decided to accent their features and change the name to Spiders).

1900 -- BLUES (Symbolizing the bright blue uniforms worn by the 1900 team).

1902 -- BRONCHOS (The 1902 Cleveland players didn't like the name Bluebirds and were looking for a more forceful nickname before voting for Bronchos).

1903 -- NAPS (Discarded blue uniforms as a local daily newspaper sponsored a contest and Naps was selected in honor of Napoleon Lajoie).

1915 -- INDIANS (A local daily newspaper ran a contest and the name Indian was suggested by a fan who said he was doing it in honor of an Indians player named Luis Francis Sockalexis.

CLEVELAND ALL-STAR REVIEW

TOP THREE ALL-STAR CROWDS

1 — 72,086 at Cleveland Stadium on August 9, 1981

2 — 69,831 at Cleveland Stadium on July 8, 1935

3 — 68,751 at Cleveland Stadium on July 13, 1954

GAME ONE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — July 8, 1935
American League 4, National League 1

A crowd of 69,831 — the largest throng to see an All-Star Game (until 1981 in Cleveland) — packed the lakefront Stadium for just the third mid-summer classic in history. The partial American League crowd was thrilled to a 4-1 junior circuit victory, the A.L.'s third straight All-Star win.

Jimmy Foxx belted a two-run homer in the first inning and the American Leaguers coasted to the win as Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder baffled the National League hitters.

GAME TWO AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — July 13, 1954
American League 11, National League 9

In a spectacular slugfest that set All-Star marks for runs and hits by the two clubs, the American League edged the National 11-9. The slugfest produced six home runs, including four by the A.L. The Indians' Al Rosen clubbed a pair of homers while he and his Cleveland teammates Bobby Avila and Larry Doby combined for eight RBI.

The 1954 contest was a wild seesaw contest which saw the lead change six times before the A.L. pulled out the 11-9 win with a three run rally in the eighth. Ironically, it was Nellie Fox's broken bat single over second base with the bases loaded in the eighth that provided the margin of victory.

GAME THREE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — July 9, 1963
National League 5, American League 3

After four years as a double feature, the All-Star Game went to a single performance and saw the National League utilize its speed and gain its first Cleveland Stadium win, 5-3.

Willie Mays was easily the game's outstanding performer, going 1-for-3 with two RBI, two runs scored, two stolen bases, a walk and the game's most scintillating catch. 44,160 fans saw the action.

GAME FOUR AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — August 9, 1981
National League 5, American League 4

An all-time record All-Star Game crowd of 72,086 welcomed back baseball from the dreaded players strike and saw the National League edge the American 5-4. The 72,086 fans gave Cleveland the top three crowds in All-Star history.

Gary Carter clubbed two home runs, including a seventh inning solo shot to put the National Leaguers ahead to stay. Cleveland's Lenny Barker faced just six batters in his two innings of work, striking out one.

BOB FELLER — #19

Arguably the greatest right-handed pitcher of all-time, the Van Meter, Iowa native joined the Indians as an 18 year-old in 1936 and played 18 years with the Tribe. Feller compiled a lifetime record of 266-162 with a 3.25 ERA. He is the Indians all-time leader in shutouts (46), innings pitched (3,827), wins and strikeouts (2,581).

Bob appeared in 8 All-Star games, more than any player in the history of the Indians and started the 1941 and 1946 games.

Feller won twenty or more games six times and won a career-best 27 games in 1940. Bob also led the league in strikeouts seven times and in 1946 he won 26 games and struck out 348 in 371.1 innings and the 348 strikeouts is still a single-season team record.

"Rapid Robert" tossed three no-hitters in his career. Feller's first no-hitter came on April 16, 1940 in a 1-0 victory at Chicago in 30-degree weather and it remains as baseball's only opening day, no-hitter

Bob lost three years of his career serving in the military (1942-44) and saw limited action in 1945.

Bob Feller's #19 was retired by the Indians in 1957, the first number retired by the club and he was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1962.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average -- Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats, Example: Player A is 12-for-40 or .300.

Slugging Percentage -- Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

Earned Run Average -- The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Average -- The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952.

Won-Lost Percentage -- Divide the number of victories by the total number of games played. Example: 22 wins and 18 losses produce a winning percentage of .550.

STADIUM INFORMATION

FIRST GAME IN THE STADIUM — Sunday, July 31, 1932, Philadelphia 1, Cleveland 0. Lefty Grove the winner, Mel Harder the loser.

FIRST NIGHT GAME IN THE STADIUM — June 27, 1939, Cleveland 5, Detroit 0.

FIRST FULL SEASON AT THE STADIUM — 1933, after which the Indians returned to League Park — playing occasionally at the Stadium. They returned to the Stadium on a permanent basis in 1947 and have remained there ever since.

LEAGUE PARK — Constructed in 1891 at Lexington Avenue and East 66th Street as the home field of Cleveland's professional baseball team. A capacity crowd of 9,000 jammed into the new park on opening day, May 1, 1891, to watch Cy Young beat Cincinnati 12-3. The wooden park was dismantled, following the 1909 season and replaced by a steel and concrete structure which was still known as League Park.

DUNN FIELD — League Park was rechristened Dunn Field in 1920 in honor of team owner James Dunn. The name reverted to League Park following Dunn's death in 1927.

FIRST GAME AT LEAGUE PARK — April 21, 1910, Detroit 5, Cleveland 0, (Attendance 19,867) League Park Capacity — 23,000.

LAST GAME AT LEAGUE PARK — September 21, 1946, Detroit 5, Cleveland 3.

FIRST YEAR FOR OUTFIELD FENCE AT THE STADIUM — 1947.

FIRST HOMER IN THE STADIUM — Infielder Johnny Burnett of the Indians in the 6th inning of the first game of the doubleheader against Washington on August 7, 1932. Cleveland won 7-4.

FIRST NO-HITTER IN THE STADIUM — Don Black of the Indians on July 10, 1947 against Philadelphia. Final score: Cleveland 3, Philadelphia 0.

NO BALL HAS EVER BEEN HIT INTO THE CENTERFIELD BLEACHERS.

LONGEST BALL hit in the Stadium, it has been determined, was by Indian first baseman Luke Easter on June 23, 1950. The ball landed in the upper deck, section 4 in right field — a total of 477 feet from home plate. Mickey Mantle, Frank Howard and Rocky Colavito have hit balls that bounced near the bleacher wall in left center field, some 465 feet from home plate.

TOTAL FIELD AREA at the Stadium covers 183,000 square feet, some 3 1/2 acres.

BASEBALL TARPAULIN at the Stadium is a 170-foot nylon square, weighs 2,500 pounds dry and 3,500 pounds when wet.

THE CENTERFIELD SCOREBOARD was completely rebuilt for the 1989 season. It has full message capabilities with a higher resolution than ever before. The new board has 25,344 lamps, over 5,000 more lamps than it previously had. Its dimensions are 136 feet long by 51 feet high. The lamp matrix, which flashes messages and scores, measures 86 feet by 24 feet. Also new in '89, a message board was placed below the facing of the loges on the first and third base side. Each board has 4,096 lamps. Additionally, a new state of the art sound system has been installed as part of the centerfield scoreboard.

STADIUM LIGHTING is comprised of 920 metallic halide lamps and fixtures, installed in 1967, and produces in excess of 1,000,000 peak-beam candle power in addition to 398, 1,500-watt incandescent units from the old system. Total light output from the Stadium lighting system is equal to light output from 54,857 100-watt household bulbs.

LOGE BOXES were added to the Stadium in time for the 1975 season. There are 84 eight-seat loges and 24 six-seat loges — a total of 108. The loges, located below the facing of the upper deck, are air-conditioned, heated and entirely furnished by the Cleveland Stadium Corporation. There are three different color combinations and art designs for wall paintings. Furniture includes tables, chairs, couch, closed-circuit and all-channel color television, refrigerator, rest room and ice service. Total loge seating capacity is 816.

TRIBE MOVES IN OUTFIELD FENCE

The Indians have moved in the fence in the outfield of Cleveland Stadium for the 1992 season. In 1991 Cleveland Stadium was the largest park in the American League from foul line to foul line.

The new dimensions of Cleveland Stadium are:

INDIANS BROADCAST HISTORY

The early days of baseball play-by-play broadcasting in Cleveland were highlighted by change. Broadcasting legend Tom Manning, known for his field announcing at League Park, was heard over radio station WTAM from 1929-31 covering most home games. Ellis Vander Pyl started the 1932 season on WHK, but was quickly replaced by another broadcasting legend, former Tribe player Jack Graney. For the next decade, when Tribe baseball was on the air, Graney was at the mike. His noteworthy partners included Gil Gibbons, Pinky Hunter and Lou Henry. In 1945, no Cleveland baseball broadcasts were heard because of radio network committments. Permanent radio play-by-play of Indians games was established in 1946 when Bill Veeck purchased the team. Before the sale, no games were broadcast in 1946. Soon after the Veeck purchase four stations carried the Tribe game of June 28, 1946 (Graney and Bob Neal on WGAR, Earl Harper on WJW, Don Campbell on WHK, and Manning on WTAM).

TRIBE RADIO

Former Cleveland Indians pitching star HERB SCORE is beginning his 29th season broadcasting Indians baseball in 1992. The lefthander will team with TOM HAMILTON to provide commentary for all 162 regular season games and 23 spring training contests on WKNR RADIO, 1220 on the AM dial. WKNR, Cleveland's all-sports station, is in its first year as the radio home of the Indians.

Score began his broadcasting career in 1964 as a color commentator on Indians TV telecasts. Herb took over as the radio play-by-play man in 1968. His legendary fastball helped him gain American League Rookie of the Year honors in 1955, becoming the first of four Tribesmen to do so to date. Herb posted a 16-10 record and a 2.85 ERA in '55, while setting the record for strikeouts in a season by a rookie pitcher with 245, a mark which stood until 1984 when it was broken by the Mets Dwight Gooden. The number still represents the A.L. Rookie mark. Score followed up those impressive numbers with a fine 20-9 mark with a 2.53 ERA in 1956. He also struck out 263 in just 249.1 innings of work. Herb was selected to the American League All-Star team in both '55 and '56.

Score concluded his eight-year big league career with a 55-46 mark and a fine 3.36 ERA. He struck out 837 in 858.1 innings pitched.

Herb and his wife Nancy have four children: Judith, Susan, Mary Kay, David and three grandchildren: Kaily Ann, Brian Jude and Tyler. The Scores reside in Rocky River.

HAMILTON, 37 (August 19, 1954), enters his third season as a Tribe broadcaster. He came to the Indians after spending three seasons as a broadcaster for the AAA Columbus Clippers, the top farm club of the New York Yankees, on WBNS Radio.

Previously, Tom had worked in Milwaukee, Appleton, Watertown and Shell Lake, Wisconsin.

Some of Tom's broadcasting credits include the University of Wisconsin football games, University of Colorado basketball games, Appleton Foxes minor league baseball games and work for ABC Radio.

Hamilton is a native of Waterloo, Wisconsin and is a graduate of Brown Institute in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He resides in Bay Village, OH., with his wife Wendy, son, Nicholas, and daughter Kelsey.

TRIBE TELEVISION

WUAB-TV 43, the television home of the Indians, will telecast 60 games in 1992.

JACK CORRIGAN will return for his eighth season in the Indians television broadcast booth for the 1992 campaign.

A native Clevelander, Corrigan is no stranger to northeast Ohio sports fans. In addition to his work with the Tribe, Jack handled the play-by-play and color commentary duties for the Cleveland Cavs telecasts for five years and also handled television duties for the MISL Cleveland Force for three years. He has also been the northern Ohio correspondent for the Entertainment and Sports Programming Network (ESPN) for the past eight years.

Jack is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and Cornell University, and has a master's degree in speech from Kent State University. During the off-season, Jack also coaches football at St. Ignatius, the 1988, 1989, and 1991 AAA State Champions. He and his wife Lisa have two children, Megan and Michael, and reside in North Royalton.

MIKE HEGAN is in his fourth season as a Tribe broadcaster in 1992, teaming with JACK CORRIGAN on 60 games that will be broadcast by WUAB-TV 43.

Hegan came to the Indians in 1989 after 11 seasons as a Milwaukee Brewers television announcer. Prior to his broadcasting career, Hegan played 12 years in the major leagues (1964-77) with the New York Yankees, Seattle Pilots, Milwaukee Brewers and the Oakland A's. The former 1st baseman-outfielder represented Seattle in the 1969 All-Star Game and played on the 1972 World Championship Oakland A's team. Mike is the son of former Indians catcher, Jim Hegan, who played with the Tribe for 14 seasons.

In 1985, Hegan began operating "Grand Slam U.S.A.," an indoor baseball practice and instructional facility located in the Milwaukee area. Mike and his wife Nancy reside in Mequon, Wisconsin with their sons, Shawn and J.J.

Former Tribe center fielder RICK MANNING returns for his third full season as the color commentator for SPORTSCHANNEL. Manning handled those duties for the 11 Indians games on SPORTSCHANNEL in 1989.

Manning began his professional baseball career with the Cleveland Indians as the #1 selection in the 1972 June draft. The first 8 1/2 years of his 13-year major league career were spent in Cleveland (1975-1983) where he won a Gold Glove in 1976 for his fielding prowess. Manning was also selected as the BBWAA "Good Guy" award winner for the 1980 season. His numbers as a Cleveland Indian included a .263 average (1053-3997), 36 HRs and 336 RBI. Rick concluded his career with the Milwaukee Brewers (1983-1987) and posted a .257 career average, hitting 56 home runs and driving in 458 runs.

JOHN SANDERS, a 24-year broadcast veteran, is in his second season as the play-by-play voice of the Indians on the Tribe's cable home, SPORTSCHANNEL.

Sanders joins RICK MANNING in the booth to broadcast Indians games in 1992. John came to Cleveland in 1991 after spending nine seasons as the play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Sanders, a Kansas native, started his career in 1965 at WIBW-TV and radio in Topeka, Kansas upon graduation from Kansas State University. In 1966 he took a job at KMBC-TV in Kansas City, MO as the sports and news anchor. He remained at KMBC for 12 years and was the play-by-play announcer for the Kansas City Chiefs of the NFL, NCAA college baseball and Kansas City Blues hockey.

In 1978, John made the jump to KDKA-TV and radio in Pittsburgh and in 1981 he began announcing Pirates games. In 1990, Sanders served as play-by-play announcer for ESPN's regional Major League Baseball telecasts.

Sanders, 43, resides in Pittsbugh, PA. with his wife Cherie and his two daughters, Gabrielle, 21, and Hilary, 17.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE: A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent ... Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player. Approximate date of draft meetings: Summer (early June).

(1) Regular Phase: Clubs choose in inverse order of Major League standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age ... each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for the "A" level ... Minor League clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e., 4- 1/2 or 5 innings) (Rule 4.10).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground ... If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 4.12 ...

Any LEGAL game called due to weather with the score TIED is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

SUBSTANTIVE

— The trading "deadline" is now July 31, waivers are required for any inter- or intra- Major League assignment during the period beginning August 1 and ending at 5 p.m. ET the day after the end of the season. During the other ten months of the year, no waivers are needed.

— It will be easier to compute which players need waivers before they may be optioned: if three years (less one month for each previously spent on option) have elapsed since the player actually reported to the major leagues for the first time, waivers are required. The date of the actual physical reporting will be used as a benchmark instead of the date the player was placed first on the 40-man roster.

—The procedure for assignment waiver requirements are as follows:

Club From/To	31st day of Season to 7/31	8/1 to 8/31	9/1 to Last day of Season	End of Season to 30th day of Season
ML to ML	NONE	ML	ML	NONE
ML to NA (opt)	ML	ML	ML	ML
ML to NA	OR	OR	SPL	SPL

There are four different types of waiver requests:

-- Major League Waivers
-- Special Waivers (irrevocable)
-- Outright Waivers (irrevocable)
-- Unconditional Release Waivers

Outright Waivers (OR) are ML waivers and expire at the end of the waiver period in which they were secured MLR 10 (f).

The club must tender a special waiver request specifying that waivers are requested for the purpose of outright assignment to the National Association. The claiming period, as with other waivers, is three business days, and an assignment pursuant to special waivers must be completed by 2 p.m. ET the seventh day after waivers are secure.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or (c) he pitched effectively in the last three innings.

PLAYER LIMITS: 25 players from opening day through August 31 ... 40 players from September 1 through end of season ... Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE:

— Is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or major league disabled list or suspended list.

— In the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.

— In the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.

— In the case of a major league player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.

— In the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers are requested.
— In the case of a player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.
— For a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
— Is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 182 days long.
— Is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totalling 20 days or more during a single season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DISABLED LISTS:

Supplemental (15-day) -- NO LIMIT

Emergency (60-day) The emergency DL can only be used if the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

-- Maximum: no limit on the number of players. (Players carried on this list do not count against 40-man under control limit. If placed or transferred here after 8/1, player must remain through the end of post season.) Day one is day following players last game appearance.

-- Reinstatement may be made after the beginning Day 16 or 61 respectively; after minimum period has expired player may be reinstated at any time (except in certain "Emergency" cases — above).

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE: All night games must be called at 1 a.m., local time. However, if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m., it can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season, in each of the two parks of two contesting teams.

BATTING-PITCHING QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify for the American League batting championship, a player must have 502 or more plate appearances (this is equivalent to at least 3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games). Pitchers must work 162 or more innings to qualify for the earned run average title.

PINCH HITTER RULE: A player shall be considered a pinch hitter if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up). A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate, he is a designated hitter only.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE: A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included in the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order, but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or a pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

DEFINITION OF A NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed by rain, or for any reason, it will be considered a day game; if a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 pm, it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date with separate admissions, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.
